Cold

Author's Notes:
Wrote this at work with the \"Snow\" drabble prompt in mind, but it doesn\'t have snow in it. Go figure.

Cold.

Despite the blazing hot stage lights, he's cold.

Oh so cold.

It could be because he's wearing no shirt. It could be because he's stationary in front at the moment.

But he's cold.

Even when another body comes near, leaning against his tiny frame to play out a guitar solo.

Still so cold.

He sighs and leaves his position in the front, shuffling to the back.

It's a little warmer back there, but he's still cold.

A big arm pulls him closer, wrapping him in warmth and sighing against his body.

Smiles cross their lips.

He's not cold anymore.
